

I am an Indiana resident on the no-call list. The dozens of solicitations we received at our home per week have dropped to none thanks to this list. I do not want any businesses I currently deal with starting to call again. If I need their services, I know how to reach them. The Indiana Attorney General's Office has restored privacy to our home and I encourage the FCC to leave the Indiana no-call policy in-place as is. Thank you.